

RGK CENTER PRESENTS DATA SCIENCE SPEAKER SERIES

OPEN-SOURCE INTELLIGENCE AND TRUTH IN A POST-TRUTH WORLD: BELLINGCAT'S PRACTICES

MARCH 22, 2021

MONDAY 10:30-11:45 AM

registration at jima.me/?bellingcat

THEMES

- Methodologies for working with open-source data
- Research workflow for robust and meaningful analyses
- Career and curriculum suggestions for graduate students
- Roles of NGOs and civil society actors in combating misinformation

PRESENTER

ARIC TOLER

TRAINING AND RESEARCH
DIRECTOR, BELLINGCAT

Aric Toler is the training and research director at Bellingcat, an online publication specialized in open-source intelligence. Aric's research including Russian intelligence operations, the war in the Donbas, and the 2014 downing of Malaysian Airlines Flight 17 over eastern Ukraine. Aric received his Master's degree in Slavic Languages & Literatures from the University of Kansas in 2013 and has since been working with Bellingcat.